SD 80/20 Presentation by Grand Union Vineyard:

The Grand Union Vineyard church is based on Netherfield and provides a range of support to local people, some youth sessions, community fridge, wellbeing sessions and similar. In addition, they currently provide the Storehouse service, offering clothes and other items to people in need. This is currently based in Stacey Bushes and they are looking to open another base on Netherfield. The funding for creation of suitable space, etc. is already in place.

Their funding request is to support the employment of a project worker to facilitate the development of all aspects of their work locally – the total cost of this employee is £32,439, with around £9,600 already raised, leaving just under £23,000 to find.

Communities and Environment Fund Application(s)

SD 81/20 Tinkers Bridge Residents Association:

Application request for up to £500, Tinkers Bridge Residents Association are planning one or more summer activities or events to enable the community to come together in the current emergency, either by having a socially distanced event, such as a picnic with games for children, or by planning something for when restrictions are relaxed. Residents will be consulted on the activity(s) they would like to have.
